

True Source Honey would like to thank all who attended the True Source Certified Honey informational meeting in Chicago on February 16th, 2011.

We believe that the overwhelming response and attendance have supported the very reasons True Source Honey was founded:

- To create an industry solution to the problems of circumvention and unethical sourcing practices.
- To recognize those companies who have made a decision to source honey in accordance with US Trade Laws.
- To protect the pure and wholesome image of honey.

True Source Honey invites all honey industry stakeholders to participate in the True Source Honey initiative by having your organization follow the True Source Certification program at the appropriate level.

Packers and Processors/Exporters:

- Fill out the Registration Form
- Become Certified

Importers and Beekeepers:

- Fill out the Registration Form
- Become Registered

All Honey Community Members:

- Express your interest in becoming an Advisory Board member / Click "Contact Us" on the website
- Encourage your industry contacts to become active in the program

Give your trading partners the assurance of complete traceability and compliance with U.S. and International Law by taking a stand, becoming a member of True Source, and adhering to the True Source Certified standards with independent 3rd party certifications which validate your organizational efforts.

- True Source Certified Registration Form and Pre-certification Questionnaire
- Labtest - Intertek Remittance Instructions